As waterfowlers and gun owners you owe to yourself and your families the knowledge of knowing who sponsored the bills above in this just past legislative session.

There is little doubt in MY mind that the aforementioned legislators seek the ban of all firearms in Washington State.

One of the best and most memorable people I ever worked for was a white haired Irishman named Jack Casey. He had what seemed like countless anecdotes for just about every situation. One of those applies to those listed above. He would tell me occasionally, "Jimmy, you need to remember the 11th Commandment 'Know Thy Enemy'" .

For the purpose of this application and in the interest of Political Correctness, I'll amend that to read, "Know Thy Friends."

Commencing with this newsletter, you will be seeing ongoing ads to join NRA each month. If you are not a member, please consider joining. As Americans, outdoors enthusiasts, and people who believe we need to maintain the right to protect ourselves, our property, and those we love. We do not want Our Country to go the route of Canada or Australia. Click here to join NRA today.

I make donations to causes and people I believe in. Sometimes I even do a little work on behalf of my candidates and causes. That said, part of the joy for doing my good deeds is an ongoing onslaught of requests for help... financial and other.

As president of WWA, I don't believe I have ever sought donations for a particular cause. In this, my last newsletter article, I'm going to depart from that record.

Over the past couple of years, as you are well aware, WWA has been embroiled in a dispute with WDFW over the destruction of Shillapoo Wildlife Area in southwest Washington. The Directors and Officers have made the decision in recent months to expound too much on neither our efforts nor our successes.

You need to know that your directors and officers have burned the candles at both ends filing Public Disclosure Requests (PDR's), sifting and researching documents, driving up and down the highways, meeting with Legislators during the week and on weekends to educate them as to our viewpoint on the Shillapoo Dispute. WWA members and officers have attended at least four (4) public and private meetings with WDFW.

As a result, the Washington State Legislature "pulled the funding" for the project from the coming budget period.

Your leadership is now moving into a new phase of the defense of Shillapoo and the other dozen or so wildlife areas created and maintained for specific purposes around Washington. It is important for all of you to understand the basics of the Pittman-Robertson Act. That being that all hunting and fishing equipment in the U.S. has an additional tax tacked on that goes to the Department of the Interior to be spent on the creation and maintenance of areas such as Shillapoo.

Shillapoo was , in part, created and maintained for the express benefit and purpose of waterfowl.

Washington State and WDFW entered into contracts and obligations with the Department of the Interior — the U.S. Government — to create Shillapoo. Shillapoo is in fact a public trust managed by WDFW.

They do not have the right to back out of the deal with we sportsmen and women who have been paying into the trust for over 70 years. They do not have the right to sacrifice the 80 plus species who use the area in the "hope" that they will be able to re-create a Salmon fishery from over 100 years ago.

Please consider a donation to the WWA Legal Fund today!

Lastly, it has been an honor to have attempted to set direction for WWA over the past few years. I wish I could have done more. That said, I want to acknowledge all of you members that make a difference on behalf of waterfowl and waterfowling. I especially want to acknowledge the directors and officers for their many efforts...and for putting up with me. And, I want to say thank you so much Matty Moore for helping get our newsletter out each month... I still owe you a lunch.

For the Resource,
Jim Cortines

My name is Richard (Rick) Holt, I am a retired union carpenter. I have lived in Washington state for 40 years. I joined the WWA Northwest Chapter in April 2014. I was elected to the Board of Directors (BOD) in 2015. I am currently the Vice President. As our current BOD president is stepping down from his position as President, I would like to be elected the next President of WWA. I believe in the goals we are trying to accomplish and will do my best to keep us going in the same direction.

Bio for Bruce Burns: Candidate for WWA Board of Directors

I am running for election to one of the WWA Board of Directors positions in the upcoming June 2018 Election. I have been a member of Southwest Chapter of the WWA for the past 10 years, two (2) years ago I took over the Chairperson of the Southwest Chapter. During my time with the organization I have been involved in setting up and running the WWA booth at the annual Puyallup Sportsman Show; maintaining the duck blinds at Rapjohn Lake; plus other volunteer projects with this Chapter.

About six (6) months ago I was appointed to the WWA Board of Directors to fill a open position, around the same time I was invited to the newly formed Pierce County Sports and Recreation Council.

Bio for Jim Goldsmith: Candidate for WWA Board of Directors

I have hunted big game, small game, and birds (including waterfowl) since I was about 10-years-old. Much of my hunting background was in Arizona; however, I have also hunted in Washington, Wyoming, Colorado, Utah, and South Africa as well. I am very passionate about protecting our rights and ability to hunt, and our Second Amendment rights. I was the hunter representative in the workgroup formed to review the proposed Thurston County No Shooting Zone Ordinance in 2011 and 2012 and worked diligently to the defeat of TCNSZO.

My family and I have been members of the WWA since 2011. I have been on the WWA Board of Directors from mid-2017 to present. I have been on the Washingtonians for Wildlife Conservation Board of Directors from 2014 to present, and Westside Vice-President from 2015 to present.

WDFW Private Lands Manager to Present at May 23rd Meeting:

If you have questions about hunting access to private lands in Snohomish and/or Skagit Counties; how to make reservations for the same; or about the WDFW Quality Hunt Program on the Westside, don't miss our May 23rd meeting at the Kenmore Gun Club. Guest speaker will be Cole Caldwell, head of the Private Lands Program for WDFW in Region 4.

Several of our Seattle Chapter members have seen either Cole's presentation or that of his assistant, Rob Wingard, at previous WWA-NW Chapter meetings and strongly indicate that if you hunt waterfowl in Western Washington, this presentation will be well worth your time.

Shooting open all afternoon until 7pm, followed by pizza and soda, a brief business meeting, then the program from Cole. Hope to see you there with a prospective new member!

Programs Past and Future:

Many thanks to Life member John Otto and his son, Jack, for their presentation at our April meeting on bird taxidermy and how best to preserve your trophy bird from field to the taxidermist. If you missed his presentation, John dispelled the "myth" about stuffing your bird into an old pair of nylon stockings. "Broken wings, legs and even beaks can be fixed by a good taxidermist; broken feathers, not so much!" Another word of advice from John, get your bird cooled out ASAP.

Kurt Benson (right) at the Float Tank of the WA Brant Foundation's Puget Sound Decoy Carving Contest on May 5th in Mt. Vernon. It's not enough to carve and paint your decoys to look "purdy," they also need to float correctly and hopefully turn right side up when thrown in the water. Kurt, an officer of the WA Brant Foundation, founder of the WA Refuge Decoy Carving Group, and a primary mover with the PS Decoy Carving Contest, will give a presentation of his skills at our June 27th meeting.

Art Work Supports WDFW Farmed Lands:

I'm seeing plenty of Waterfowl in the Northern Counties. It's good to see these migrating or resident birds in the area during the mid year months. The WDFW will soon start their annual grain farming on several WDFW Managed Wildlife Areas in our state. These food sources support both nesting production and migrating waterfowl.

The Washington Migratory Bird Stamp and Art Program is a major source of this funding. Each year hundreds of acres are planted supporting winter forage for migratory birds. Purchasing a Washington State Migratory Bird Stamp or Migratory Bird Stamp artwork is an investment in Washington's wetlands, waterfowl, and other migratory bird resources. You can find out more about the Washington Migratory Bird Stamp and Art Program and the projects that it funds at <http://wdfw.wa.gov/hunting/waterfowl/stamp/> and purchase art work at: <https://www.washingtonduckstamp.com/>.

Washington Brant Foundation Event:

The Washington Brant Foundation hosted its annual Decoy Carving and Scholarship Auction "The Puget Sound Open" on Saturday, May 5th at Maiben Park in Burlington. There were live auctions, silent auctions and raffles. Unfortunately I could not attend due to a prior commitment however, WWA-Seattle Chapter members Mike Lovelace, Paul McGovern and his son Jacob, and John Arrabito joined WWA Corp VP and NW Chapter member, Rick Holt staff the WWA Duck Mount Display Booth.

Two of this seasons newly installed Wood Duck Boxes at local property owner Stephan Stacey's home in Arlington. One of the Boxes has a nesting Hen. Thanks Stephen!

THANK YOU all for actively promoting the WWA mission. I'm told it was beautiful day to hold this event and a lot of fun by all who attended.

Blind Maintenance at local Wildlife Areas:

Bring your hammers, saws and other "implements of construction" (destruction for some of us). During the month of June the Chapter members will be repairing some of the Blinds at the Skagit Wildlife Areas. Some of these blinds see heavy use during the season, and a few were identified as in need of help during our March cleanup. Info on location and dates to be released soon.

Eagle Scout Project:

The NW Chapter will be teaming up with the Washington Department of Fish and Wildlife (WDFW) to support a local Boy Scouts Community Service Project. In his quest to attain the highest rank in Scouting — "Eagle Scout" — the young man has selected a Waterfowl Hunting Blind as his Eagle Badge Project. We'll be working with the Scout in the next couple of months as he develops his Project and a blind location is identified.

17th Annual "Western Open":

The NW Chapter will host a WWA Booth at the 17th Annual "Western Open" August 2-5, 2018 at the Top Gun Club in Mt Vernon. The Western Open is one of the premier Sporting Clays events in the nation. The Top Gun Club has over 130 acres of ponds, rockeries and rolling hills. We will have the WWA Trailer, Duck Mount Display and WWA information available at the booth. We are looking for volunteers to support this event. Please contact Rick Holt at 1-360-853-3742 or foxredlab12@yahoo.com for more information.

Monthly Meeting:

The Northwest Chapter meets on the second Tuesday each month. Our next meeting will be held on June 12th, at the Conway Fire Station starting at 7pm. Gift Certificate Raffle at the end of each meeting. See you there and bring a friend.

It's Raining Wood Ducks at the Richland Rod and Gun Club: More Wood Duck jumps Tuesday

The Richland Rod and Gun Club (RRGC) maintains over 450 wood duck nest boxes that are used by wood ducks, screech owls, and kestrels. Whenever boxes are located close to power and internet services they have connect cameras inside and outside the box for your viewing and for use by local schools for education of students.

Two of the nest boxes with ducklings hatched on Monday, May 14. This means that Tuesday, May 15 it will rain ducklings that will be jumping from the boxes.

Moses Lake and Potholes Reservoir Canada Goose Nest Survey Results, 2000-2018

By: Ella Rowan, WDFW Assistant District Wildlife Biologist

Canada goose nest surveys have historically been conducted on Moses Lake islands between 1981 and 2018, and on Potholes Reservoir islands between 1997 and 2017, but with varying volunteer effort and survey dates. WDFW plans to require a more stringent protocol in the future to ensure results are comparable between years. Seeing an increase or decrease between years does not mean anything when effort has changed between years. We need to survey within the same timeframe, account for the number of people searching, and ensure everyone follows the same guidelines when searching and noting nest status. Predation can be difficult to differentiate from hatching, at times.

Moses Lake Islands:

If we ignore the change in effort between years, data collected on 6 islands between years 2000 and 2018 appear to indicate the total number of geese nests found has remained fairly stable on 3 islands (South of Crest, Goat and Heron). The number of nests found on Crest Island and Gailey's Island are much lower in recent years between 2008 and 2018. These are larger islands, which may be experiencing disturbance from human visitation or predators. Garbage is present on many islands (shotgun shells, plastic, chair remnants, etc), although human intrusion is not likely solely during hunting season. Marsh Island was inconsistently surveyed due to the difficulty of wading through tall emergent vegetation, and South of Crest Island is also inundated with water, making searching difficult and altering effort between years.

Nest status indicates whether eggs are still being incubated, whether they hatched, whether they have been predated, or whether the nest was abandoned. These values are difficult to compare between years due to the different dates of survey effort and the varying knowledge for assessment between observers. If we assume all volunteers correctly and consistently assessed nest status, ignore the different survey dates between years, and ignore the small sample sizes on each island, the data would indicate predation has been present on most islands between 2004 and 2018 and has increased on some islands between 2008 and 2018.

Potholes Reservoir Islands:

Effort conducted on Potholes Reservoir varied tremendously between years, ranging between 25 and 126 islands surveyed in a given year. For this reason, we averaged the number of nests found in a given Area Unit of the Reservoir based upon the number of islands surveyed in that Unit. As a result, the value for "total nests" in the charts below are a fraction rather than a whole number.

The number of, and experience of, surveyors cannot be accounted for and still lend variation in effort between years. If we ignore the change in effort between years, data collected between years 1997 and 2017 appears to indicate no obvious trends. Some Units increase, some decrease, and all are up and down across the years. Predation rates do not appear to be an increasing problem on these islands. Better consistent data collection is necessary to evaluate trends, although nesting is still taking place on many islands and hatching is successful to some extent on most islands where nests are found.

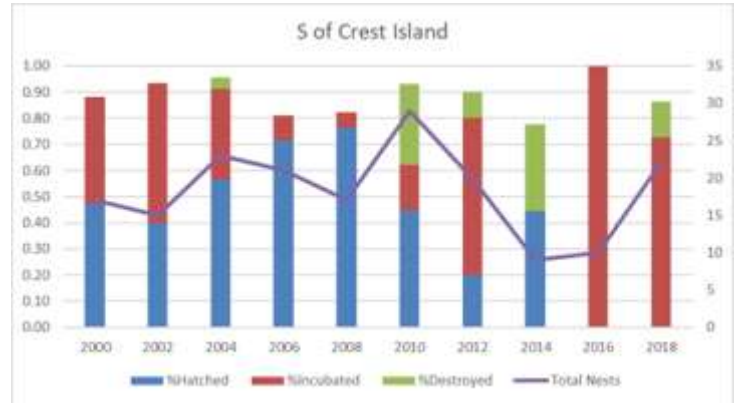

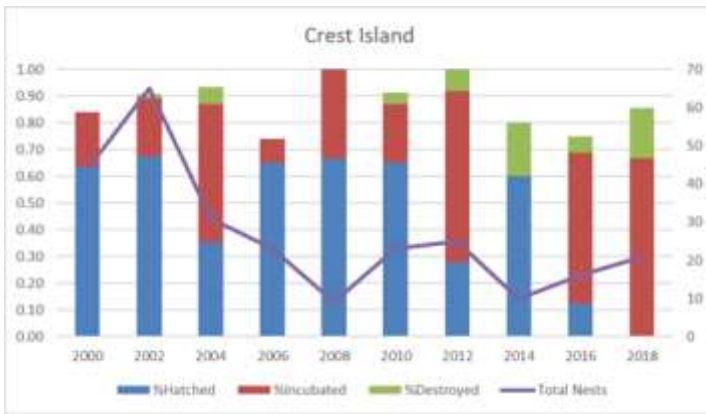

These surveys have been performed by many incredible volunteers from the Washington Waterfowl Association, other non-affiliated volunteers, and WDFW staff across the years. Robin and Susan Hickok have hosted an amazing BBQ at their home, with additional food provided by the WWA via Dick Price over the years... always a delicious and fun event! We are grateful for the interest and hard work that has been done, and look forward to continuing these surveys with slight modifications in the future!

Newly hatched!

Examples of the status of two (2) Moses Lake island nests as a percent of total nests (abandoned nests make up the difference). Total nests are the Secondary Axis.

Examples of the status of three (3) Potholes Reservoir Unit nests as a percent of total nests (abandoned nests make up the difference). Number of nests/island are the Secondary Axis, with values of zero indicating a survey was not performed that year.
